Itinerary for 4 nights and 5 days

Day 1 :

Night Stay @ Jhandi Dara. Jhandi consists of multiple dimension from the one spot are as follow , Sun rise and sun Set , Wide range of kanchanjungha ,Wide range of Nathula Range, Wide range of Duars and Tarai, Variety of Himalayan Birds.
Throughout the year cold, Uprising of clouds from Duars and Tarai and its Hibernating, Multiple mountain ranges from Jhandi.
.

Schedule:

Pick up at Siliguri/ NJP/Bagdogra > Breakfast > Start for Jhandi Dara > Stoppage at Bikrama Stupa > Reach Jhandi Dara > check in > Lunch > Leisure Time > Evening Snacks > Dinner.

Day 2 :

Night Stay @ Aritar : Aritar a region in East Sikkim of India under Rongli Sub-Division, is known for its natural and landscaped beauty. It is located on the edge of the Himalayas Isolated from the rest of the state, on the far eastern border of Sikkim and bounded by Mt. Kanchendzonga, the region is characterized by lush forest, mountains and rivers. The Aritar Lake (Ghati-Tso) is a nearby attraction.

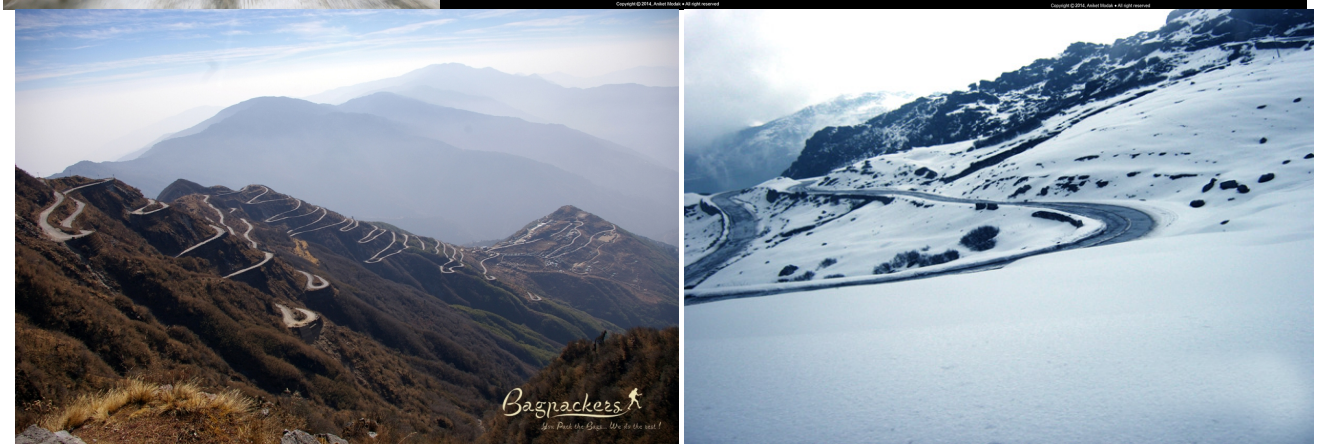
Schedule:

Breakfast > Check out from Jhandi > Reach Aritar > check in > Lunch > Leisure Time > Stroll to Lampokhri Lake > Evening Snacks > Dinner.

Day 3 :

Night Stay @ Aritar : Often known as the Ladakh of Eastern India, The Silk Route offers you a set of new experiences every time you visit.

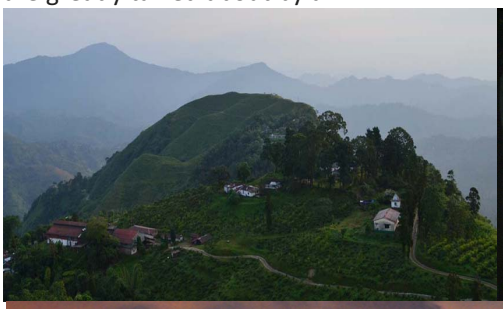
Zuluk, is a small village, located at a height of around 10,100 feet on the rugged terrain of the lower Himalayas in East Sikkim. It was once a transit point to the historic Silk Route from Tibet to India.

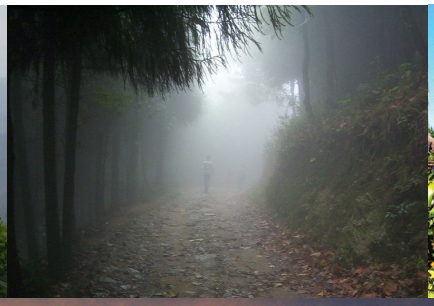


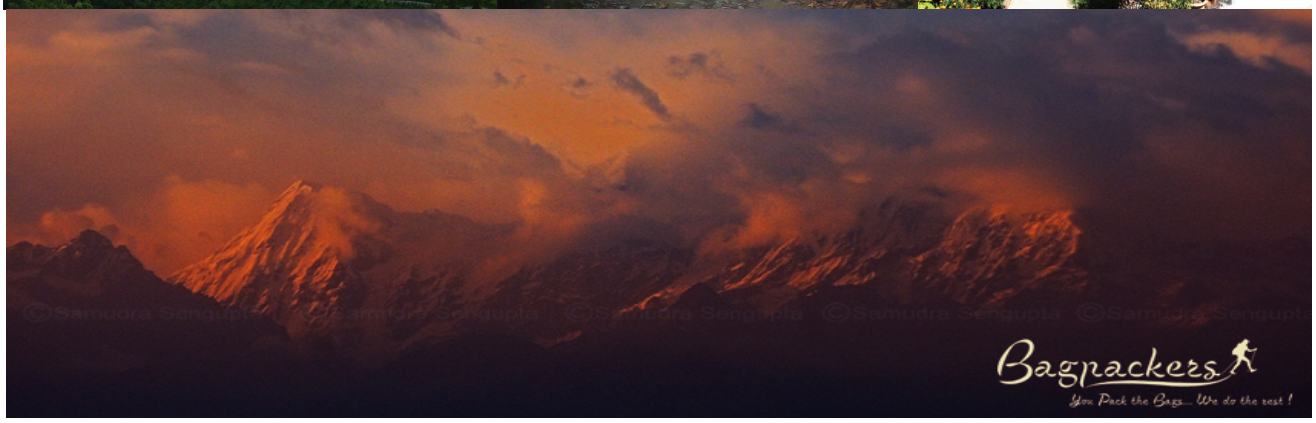
Start for the Silk Route Trail covering Zuluk View , Thambi View Point, Lungthung > Sightseeing of Bhulbhulaiya, Laxmi Chowk, Tulka Valley, Old Baba Mandir, Kala Pokhri, Gelepla Pass View Point > Reach Kupup (Loacated at 13,900 ft) > Visit to Elephanta Lake > Witness of World's highest Golf Course (13,025 ft) & Ice Hockey Ground > after shopping Chinese good at Kupup > Gnathang Valley > Lunch > Leisure Time > Evening Snacks > Dinner.

Day 4 :

Night Stay @ Tinchuley: The word Tinchuley stands for three chullas (chulla means oven), and this is represented by three prominent hill tops that resembels the three chullas. It is an upcoming tourist destination of the region. Tinchuley is a remote hamlet located close to Darjeeling which can be reached through a drive of 32 kilometers. It provides stunning Himalayan views with the Majestic Kanchanjunga towering over the entire region. The places specializes in Village Tourism and one can take village walks, nature hikes and tea garden visits during their stay here. The untouched natural forest, is a birdwatchers paradise and sunrise views from specific points in this region are greatly talked about by all.







Schedule:

Breakfast > Check out from Aritar> Start for the Tinchuley > > Reach Tinchuley > Lunch > Leisure Time > Evening Snacks > Dinner.

Day 5:

Return.

Breakfast > Check out from Tinchuley> Drop at Jalpaiguri/NJP/Bagdogra/Siliguri via Kalimpong

bagpackersind@gmail.com
9832312929 / 7384759029 / 9775912663